tom:
Intro: E

Never been one of the crazy ones E
Never been the girl to leave A
You like 30 missed calls Dbm
I'm not a villain but you made me one A
So, now I'm throwing knives at pictures
Of your face on the wall

It seems like boys like you all love to say E
That chicks like me are just insane A
But boys like you give men a shitty name Dbm A
So, let's play a game

Where I throw a little brick through E
Your pretty little face
You're easy on the eyes but you're easier to hate A
An angel's gonna fall if you come around Dbm
If my name's still on your tongue A
Then I'll rip it out

Since I'm already the bad guy in E
Your head, I'll hit you with my A
Car and I'll leave you for dead Dbm
And I'll always like the view from the A
High road but baby for you, I'll be your psycho E
I'll be your psycho A
I'll be your psycho Dbm
I'll be your psycho A
I'll be your psycho

Maybe you'll end up in a body bag E
If I can't have you then nobody can A
