

Taylor Swift - Castles Crumbling (feat. Hayley Williams)

tom:

Intro: C Em C G Em D
C Em C Em D

[Primeira Parte]

Em C G D
Once, I had an empire in a golden age
Em C G D
I was held up so high, I used to be great
Em C G D
They used to cheer when they saw my face
Em C G D
Now, I fear I have fallen from grace

[Refrão]

Em C G D
And I feel like my castle's crumbling down
Em C G D
And I watch all my bridges burn to the ground
Em C G D Em C D
And you don't want to know me, I will just let you down

You don't wanna know me now

( Em C G D )
( Em C G D )

[Segunda Parte]

Em C G D
Once, I was the great hope for a dynasty
Em C G D
Crowds would hang on my words and they trusted me
Em C G D
Their faith was strong, but I pushed it too far
Em C G D
I held that grudge 'til it tore me apart

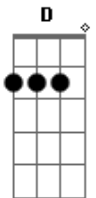

[Pré-Refrão]

Em C G D
Power went to my head and I couldn't stop
Em C G D
Ones I loved tried to help, so I ran them off
Em C G D
And here I sit alone behind walls of regret
Em C G D
Falling down like promises that I never kept

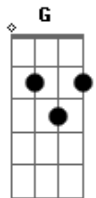

[Refrão]

Em C G D
And I feel like my castle's crumbling down

[Terceira Parte]

C C C
My foes and friends watch my reign end
D
I don't know how it could've ended this way
C
Smoke billows from my ships in the harbor
C
People look at me like I'm a monster
D
Now they're screaming at the palace front gates
D
Used to chant my name

Now they're screaming that they hate me

Never wanted you to hate me
