

Taylor Swift - I Did Something Bad

Tom: G
Intro: Em

Em
I never trust a narcissist
But they love me G
So I play 'em like a violin C
And I make it look oh-so-easy Am D
'Cause for every lie I tell them Em
They tell me three G
This is how the world works C
Now all he thinks about is me Am D C
I can feel the flames on my skin Em
Crimson red paint on my lips D C
If a man talks shit, then I owe him nothing Am
I don't regret it one bit, 'cause he had it coming D Em
They say I did something bad Em
Then why's it feel so good? G
They say I did something bad C
But why's it feel so good? Am D
Most fun I ever had Em
And I'd do it over and over and over again if I could G C
It just felt so good, good Am D
(Em G C Am D)
Em
I never trust a playboy G
But they love me C
So I fly 'em all around the world Am D
And I let them think they saved me Em
They never see it comin' G
What I do next C
This is how the world works Am D C
You gotta leave before you get left Em

I can feel the flames on my skin D C
He says "Don't throw away a good thing" Am
But if he drops my name, then I owe him nothin' Em
And if he spends my change, then he had it comin' D Em
They say I did something bad Em
Then why's it feel so good? G
They say I did something bad C
But why's it feel so good? Am D
Most fun I ever had Em
And I'd do it over and over and over again if I could G C
It just felt so good, good Am D
(Em G C Am D)
Em G D
They're burning all the witches, even if you aren't one
C Am
They got their pitchforks and proof D
Their receipts and reasons Em
They're burning all the witches, even if you aren't one G D
