

Taylor Swift - Innocent

Tom: E

(com acordes na forma de Capotraste na 2ª casa (capo 2ª casa) D )

Bm A G
I guess you really did it this time
Bm A G
Left yourself in your war path
Bm A G
Lost your balance on a tightrope
Bm A G
Lost your mind trying to get it back

A G
Wasn't it easier in your lunch box days?
A G
Always a bigger bed to crawl into
A G
Wasn't it beautiful when you believed in everything
A G
And everybody believed in you?

D
It's all right, just wait and see
A
You're streaming lights are still bright to me oh
Bm
Who you are is not what you've been
G Bm A
You're still an innocent
G Bm A G
You're still an innocent

Bm A G
There's some things you can't speak of
Bm A G
But tonight you'll leave it all again
Bm A G
You wouldn't be shattered on the floor now
Bm A G
If only you would sing only what you know now then

A G
Wasn't it easy you're in your fireflies catching days?
A G
And everything out of reach something bigger brought down to you?
A G
Wasn't it beautiful running wild till you fell asleep
A G

Before the monsters caught up to you?

D
It's all right, just wait and see
A
You're streaming lights are still bright to me oh
Bm
Who you are is not what you've been
G
You're still an innocent
D
It's OK, life is a tough crowd
A
32 and still growing up now
Bm
Who you are is not what you did
G
You're still an innocent

Bm
Time turns flames to ambers
A
You'll have new Septembers
G
Everyone of us has messed up too
Bm
Minds change like the weather
A G
I hope you remember today is never too late
G Bm A G
To be brave (ohh)

D
It's all right, just wait and see
A
You're streaming lights are still bright to me oh
Bm
Who you are is not what you've been
G
You're still an innocent
D
It's OK, life is a tough crowd
A
32 and still growing up now
Bm
Who you are is not what you did
G
You're still an innocent

Bm A G
Lost your balance on a tightrope
Bm A G
Lost your mind trying to get it back
