

Taylor Swift - Loml

tom:

[Intro] C Am G F

[Primeira Parte]

Who's gonna stop us from waltzing back into rekindled flames
 If we know the steps anyway?
 We embroidered the memories of the time I was away
 Stitching: We were just kids, babe
 I said: I don't mind, it takes time
 I thought I was better safe than starry-eyed
 I felt a glow like this, never before and never since

[Refrão]

If you know it in one glimpse, it's legendary
 You and I go from one kiss to getting married
 Still aliv?, killing time at the cem?tery
 Never quite buried

And your suit and tie, in the nick of time
 You low-down boy, you stand-up guy
 Holy ghost, you told me I'm the love of your life
 Said I'm the love of your life
 About a million times

[Segunda Parte]

Who's gonna tell me the truth when you blew in with the winds of
 Fate
 And told me I reformed you
 When your impressionist paintings of heaven turned out to be fakes?
 Well, you took me to hell too
 And all at once, the ink bleeds
 A con man sells a fool a get love quick scheme
 I felt a hole like this, never before and ever since

[Refrão]

If you know it in one glimpse, it's legendary
 What we thought was for all time was momentary
 Still aliv?, killing time at the cem?tery
 Never quite buried

You cinephile in black and white
 All those plot twists and dynamite
 Mister Steal-Your-Girl, then make her cry
 Said I'm the love of your life

[Ponte]

You shit-talked me under the table
 Talking rings and talking cradles
 I wish I could unrecall how we almost had it all
 Dancing phantoms on the terrace
 Are they second-hand embarrassed
 That I can't get out of bed?
 'Cause something counterfeit's dead

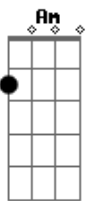

[Final]

It was legendary
 It was momentary
 It was unnecessary
 Should've let it stay buried

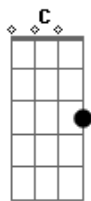

Oh, what a valiant roar
 What a bland goodbye
 The coward claimed he was a lion
 I'm combing through the braids of lies
 I'll never leave, never mind
 Our field of dreams engulfed in fire
 Your arson's match, your somber eyes
 And I'll still see until I die

You're the loss of my life
