I know he loved you
 A long time ago
 I ain't jealous of you
 Just thought you should know
 You were never good enough for him
 Or anything like me
 So you might as well sit back cause I ain't trying to show maturity
 X is the shape I drew through your face
 in permanent marker, oh
 Just like the mark you knew you were making
 Who do you think you are Drawin' on his heart
 in permanent marker
 Well I found that picture
 Of you in that green dress
 Sure had a good time
 Cleanin' up that mess
 He found thirty other pieces
 But he'll never find them all
 Tried to tape them back together

Now he knows to keep them off the wall

X is the shape I drew through your face
 in permanent marker, oh
 Just like the mark you knew you were making
 Who do you think you are Drawin' on his heart
 in permanent marker
 Well I don't appreciate you callin him a reminisce
 The only reason is you're seein just how much better off he is X is the shape I drew through your face in permanent marker, oh yeah
 Just like the mark you knew you were making
 Who do you think you are Drawin' on his heart
 in permanent marker
 X is the shape I drew through your face
 Just like the mark you knew you were making
 Who do you think you are Drawin' on his heart
 in permanent marker
 In permanent marker
