

Taylor Swift - White Horse

Tom: C

(intro 2x) C F Am F

C
Say you're sorry
F
That face of an angel
Am F
Comes out just when you need it to
C F
As I paced back and forth all this time
Am F
Cause I honestly believed in you
Am
Holding on
F
The days drag on
G
Stupid girl,
G
I should've known, I should've known
C Am
I'm not a princess, this ain't a fairytale
F
I'm not the one you'll sweep off her feet,
G
Lead her up the stairwell
C Am
This ain't Hollywood, this is a small town,
F G
I was a dreamer before you went and let me down
Am G
Now it's too late for you
F C C
And your white horse, to come around
C
Maybe I was naive,
F
Got lost in your eyes
Am F
And never really had a chance
C F
My mistake, I didn't know to be in love
Am F
You had to fight to have the upper hand
C
I had so many dreams

F
About you and me
Am F
Happy endings, now I know
C Am
I'm not a princess, this ain't a fairytale
F
I'm not the one you'll sweep off her feet,
G
Lead her up the stairwell
C Am
This ain't Hollywood, this is a small town,
F G
I was a dreamer before you went and let me down
Am G
Now it's too late for you
F C Am F G
And your white horse, to come around
Am G F
And there you are on your knees,
C G F
Begging for forgiveness, begging for me
C G F Bb
Just like I always wanted but I'm sooo sorry
C Am
Cause I'm not your princess, this ain't a fairytale
F G
I'm gonna find someone someday who might actually treat me well
C Am
This is a big world, that was a small town
F G
There in my rearview mirror disappearing now
Am G F
And it's too late for you and your white horse
Am G F C
Now it's too late for you and your white horse, to catch me now
F Am
Oh, whoa, whoa, whoa
F C
Try and catch me now
F Am
Oh, it's too late
F C
To catch me now
