

Team StarKid - A Thousand And One Nights

tom:

Db

[Primeira Parte]

I know a thousand tales to fill a thousand nights
 But now another story comes to mind
 A noble, young vizier ascends to wondrous heights
 He's brilliant as he's handsome, and handsome as he's kind

[Pré-Refrão]

He is at once familiar and unknowable
 To the frightened girl he meets along the way
 And to the girl's surprise, something in his eyes
 Beckons her to know him and inspires her to say

[Refrão]

I want to know your story
 I want to know your past
 So tell me slowly from the start
 Leave out no detail
 Savour every part
 I want to know your story
 So make the story last
 I want to know each twist and turn
 Tell me all I've missed
 I've so much to learn

For when it comes to stories
 I thought I knew them all
 Now I'm face to face with one
 I can't seem to recall

[Segunda Parte]

The young vizier had come to help inspire change
 But fate had planned an unexpected twist
 Within the palace walls he discovered something strange

And found the missing part of him he didn't know he missed

[Pré-Refrão]

She is at once a comfort and a mystery
 To the callow man she meets that fateful day
 She's beautiful and wise, and something in her eyes
 Beckons him to know her and inspires him to say

I want to know your story
 I want to know your past
 I want to know your future too
 Fill my days and nights
 With the tale of you

I want to know your story
 (I want to know your story)
 So make the story last
 (So make the story...)

And linger on for every part
 Tell it till I know
 Every bit by heart

I never cared for stories
 Until you entered mine

And now my only wish is that
 Our plots may intertwine

[Terceira Parte]

But I forget what happens next
 I'm not sure I understand
 Remind me how she answers
 When he asks her for her hand?

A thousand and one nights with you is not enough to spend
 So let's make ours a story with no end
 So let's make ours a story with no end
