Interlude - keep playing E

Night follows faceless grace with wandering eyes
Drawn to a beauty left to leer in the light
Climb the stairs and keep your only precious white wine full of worth
Rest in a hurried head youre safe from the dark
But dressed in a body left a stranger to her
Flashing an attempt to call an all showing girl
Your true woorth woorth

Dream on and sleep won't save you from the night
Drink up darling dressed in white
A shameful display, sewn in velvet and lace
To keep in the dark

C Dream on and sleep won't save you from the night

A colorful string to a colorful world
She sings in the night and never grows old
