

Thalles Cabral - Sad Boys Club

Tom: Bb
Intro:

Gm C
Hey little boy, why do you stay?
Gm
When he was young, his father said
C
"Son, life is beautiful
Gm C Gm
Just look at the sky and you will see son what I say?
Gm Bb C
Never fall in love with who you are
Gm Bb C
Don't ever say your real name, you can be whoever you want
Gm Bb C
Just say the right words
Gm Bb C
And you will go far and fly high like a bird
Gm Bb C
Welcome back to the sad boys club
Gm Bb C
My lady I'm here to make you feel the love
Gm Bb C
You pay me for love, and I am your boy
My body is yours
Gm Bb C
This place will be your best drug
And you'll be stuck

3:55 (riff 6)

Gm Bb C
It's time to change to another name
Gm Bb C
I think a lot about leaving forever
But something about this place
Gm Bb C
Just makes me sing
Gm Bb C
I never reach the surface when I drink

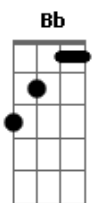

Gm Bb C
I want to become what I am still not
Gm Bb C
I'm tired of living in this fucking truck park
I haven't slept for months
Gm Bb C
They've come to us
Gm Bb C
Asking for fun while holding a gun
Gm Bb C
Welcome back to the sad boys club
Gm Bb C
My lady I'm here to make you feel the love
Gm Bb C
You pay me for love, and I am your boy
My body is yours
Gm Bb C
This place will be your best drug
And you'll be stuck
Eb F
He was born in chaos, violence and pain
Eb F
Eb
Only nineteen he could have stepped out of a film by Gus Van Sant
F
Eb
With his long hair, red sunglasses and a shirt with Jim Morrison's name
F C
Empty heart and blue eyes full of cocaine
