

The 1975 - Falling For You

tom:

Intro: Db Eb Fm Db

What time you coming out?

We started losing light

I'll never make it right

If you don't want me round

I'm so excited for the night

All we needs my bike

And your enormous house

You said someday we might

When I'm closer to your height

Till then we'll knock around and see

If you're all I need

Don't you see me now

I think I'm falling, I'm falling for you

Don't you need me

I think I'm falling, I'm falling for you

On this night and in this light

I think I'm falling, I'm falling for you

Maybe you'll change your mind

I think I'm falling

Db

I'm caught on your coat again

You said oh no, it's fine

I read between the lines

And touched your leg again

I'll take it one day at a time

Soon you will be mine

Oh but I want you now

When the smoke is in your eyes

You look so alive

Do you fancy sitting down with me

Maybe 'cos you're all I need according to your heart

My place is not deliberate

Feeling of your arms

I don't wanna be your friend, I wanna kiss your neck

Don't you see me now

I think I'm falling, I'm falling for you

Don't you need me

I think I'm falling, I'm falling for you

On this night and in this light

I think I'm falling, I'm falling for you

Maybe you'll change your mind

I think I'm falling
