

The 1975 - She Lays Down

Tom: G

[Intro/Verse]

It's not exactly what he's playing but just mess around with something like this during the verse and you should sound good. If you want to strum just strum a G and hammer on the 2nd fret on the D string every once in a while.

Third line of the verse (The Chemicals that make her laugh... Even though her son is gone... She just wants to feel something... etc.) it change to a D then Back to a G, something like this:

[Verse]

And she lays down on her bedroom floor
 The chemicals that make her laugh
 Don't seem to be working anymore
 She tries her best, but it hurts her chest
 And even though her son is gone
 She'd like to love her child nevertheless

Just repeat that for all the verses.

[Chorus]

(The Chorus is where it gets a bit tricky, here's my interpretation of it)

And I don't think that's asking for too much
 And when I go to sleep it's when she begins to weep
 She's appalled by not loving me at all
 She wears a frown and dressing gown
 When she lays down

(The most important thing is the play the chorus with a sort of descending bass line so I finger the chords something like this)

She's Appalled by not loving me at all

So here's the chords for the entire song:

[Verse 1]

And she lays down on her bedroom floor
 The chemicals that make her laugh

Don't seem to be working anymore

[Verse 2]

She tries her best, but it hurts her chest
 And even though her son is gone
 She'd like to love her child nevertheless

[Verse 3]

My hair is brown, she's scared to touch
 And she just wants to feel something
 And I don't think that's asking for too much

[Chorus 1]

And when I go to sleep it's when she begins to weep
 She's appalled by not loving me at all
 She wears a frown and dressing gown
 When she lays down

[Verse 4]

Well we got a plane, going to see my dad again
 She prayed that we fell from the sky
 Simply to alleviate the pain

[Verse 5]

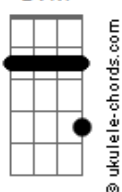

Over the water, hmm
 Over terrain
 The engines all go bust, we turned to dust
 And I've no reason to complain, yeah

[Chorus 2]

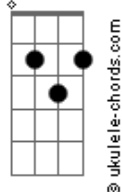

And in the end, she chose cocaine
 But it couldn't fix her brain
 She's appalled oh she doesn't love me at all
 She wears a frown and dressing gown
 When she lays down
