Hello, there's a place I've been going

Em G A
There's a place I've been going

D Em G
Now I'm clean, it would seem

A D Em
Let's go somewhere I'll be seen

Em G A
As sad as it seems

I seen Greg and he was like

D Em
"I seen your friends at the birthday party

G A
They were kinda fucked up before it even started

D Em
They were gonna go to the Pinegrove show

G A
They didn't know about all the weird stuff

D Em
So they just left it" (so they just left it)

D Em G A
And cold, minding my business

A
Then I seen the girls and they were all like

D Em
"Do you wanna come and get fucked up?"

G A
Listen, I got myself a missus, so there can't be any kissing

D Em
"No, don't be a fridge, you better wise up, kid

D Em G A
This ain't going well", I thought that I was stuck in Hell

D Em
In a boring conversation with a girl called Mel

G A
About her friend in Cincinnati called Matty as well

D Em

You pulled away when I went in for the kiss
G A
No, it wasn't a diss

D Em
You put the tap on to cover up the sound of your piss
G A
After four years, don't you think I'm over all this?

D Em G
"That's rich from a man who can't shit in a hotel room

He's gotta share for a bit"

D Em
You make a little hobby out of going to the lobby

G A
To get things that they don't have

D Em
Does it go through ya when I'm talking to ya?

G
You know that I could sue ya if we're married

A
And you fuck up again

D Em
Impress myself with stealth and bad health

G A
And my wealth and progressive causes

D Em
Drink your kombucha and buy an Ed Ruscha

G
Surely, it's a print 'cause I'm not made of it

A
Look, the fucking state of it

D
I came pretty late to it

Em G A
We can still be mates 'cause it's only a picture

D Em G
All your friends in one place

A D Em G A
Oh, we're a scene, whatever that means

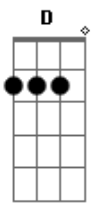

D Em G A D Em
I depend on my friends to stay clean

Em G A
As sad as it seems

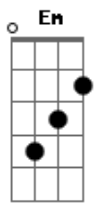

A D Em G A D Em G A
As sad as it seems

D Em G A D Em G A
As sad as it seems
