

The 1975 - The Sound

```
Tom: C
                                                                Em F
  [Intro]
Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
I know the sound, of your heart
Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
I know the sound, of your heart
[Chorus]
                                                                [Pre-Chorus]
Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
I know the sound, of your heart
Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
   Em F
I know the sound, of your heart
                                                                Cause I know you
[Verse 1]
                                                                [Chorus]
I can't believe I forgot your name
   Em
               F
Oh baby won't you cum again?
She said "I've got a problem with your shoes And your tunes, but I might move in
And I thought you were straight, now I'm wondering"
[Pre-Chorus]
 You're so conceited, I said "I love you"
        G
                           Em
 What does it matter if I lie to you?
                                                                     Fm F
                            Fm
I don't regret it but I'm glad that we're through
                               Em
So don't you tell me that you "just don't get it"
                                                                F Am G Fm
Cause I know you do
                                                                [Chorus]
[Chorus]
                              Am
Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
I know the sound, of your heart
                              Am
Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
                                                                     Fm F
I know the sound, of your heart
[Verse 2]
                                                                      Fm F
It's not about reciprocation, it's just all about me
                                                                Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound
A sycophantic, prophetic, Socratic junkie wannabe
                                                                I know the sound, of your heart
```

There's so much skin to see A simple Epicurean philosophy And you say I'm such a cliché I can't see the difference in it either way And we left things to protect my mental health But you'll call me when you're bored and you're playing with You're so conceited, I said "I love you" G Em What does it matter if I lie to you? I don't regret it but I'm glad that we're through Dm Fm So don't you tell me that you "just don't get it" Am Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound I know the sound, of your heart Am Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound I know the sound, of your heart Am Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound I know the sound, of your heart Am Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound Am G Em I know the sound, of your heart [Guitar Solo: Adam Hann] Am Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound I know the sound, of your heart Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound Am G I know the sound, of your heart Well I know when you're around cause I know the sound I know the sound, of your heart

Acordes

