

The Airborne Toxic Event - Changing

tom:

Ab

Ab

Fm
All these buckets of rain, I've heard enough about. You say that I lied

Cm
I am a gentleman

Ab
Didn't I ask for a place I could stay? What were we both thinking?

Fm Cm
The next part just got in the way

Ab
You were just always talking about changing

Fm Cm
What if I was the same then, the same I always was?

Ab
All these things that you say, like I'll forget about

Fm
These mind-numbing games that you play

Cm
I am a gentleman

Ab Fm
Didn't I pay for every laugh every dime, every bit every time

Cm

And then you feed me some line

Ab
I won't hear one more word about changing

Fm Cm
Guess what I am the same man, same that I've always been

Bbm Fm Cm
Days pass and turn into weeks, when we don't even speak

Ab Bbm
We just lay wide awake and pretend we're asleep

Fm Cm
You go home alone and you're checking your phone

And you're looking at me like I'm something you own

Ab Fm
All these buckets of rain, you can't forget about it, you say
I never tried

Cm
I am a gentleman

Ab
Didn't I answer every time that you call, pick you up when you fall

Cm
But you never listen at all

Ab
You were just always talking about changing

Fm Cm
Guess what I am the same man
