

Arcade Fire - In The Backseat

Tom: A jewish bass (or violin) player.

favorite band. Every song they have created is nothing short of brilliant. I am relatively new to the guitar and this will be my first tab. Seeing as i don't play the piano and i have yet to learn chords fo the guitar- it may be a little rusty and will do the actual song no jusice.. But- i havent been able to find a tab for this song yet, in addition to many other of theirs songs, so- if you suck as much as i do, enjoy. :) thanks. Email me with comments, revisions, whatever.

Writted by Win Butler
 Tabbed by Nick Long
 Standard Tuning

VERSE:

(Guitar 1- Lead)

"I Like the peace in the back seat
 I don't have to drive I don't have to speak
 I look and watch te countryside and I can fall asleep
 My Family Tree's losing all it's leaves

Crashing towards the driver's seat The lightening bolt had enough heat

To melt the street beneath your feet

(Guitar 2- Acoustic Rhythym)

Repeat the guitar 2 verse x2 to gi with gtr 1!

CHORUS: the low violin in the chorus really carries the tune, so i hope you have a

(Guitar 1)
 "Alice died

In the night

I've been learning to drive

My

whole life

I've been learning

CHORUS:(Guitar 2)

After the chorus, guitar 1 plays the verse (the picking one) twice again, the first time pesky violin does a solo. even a handy jewish bass player can't replace that, but you substitute your guitar 2 for it if you dont have a 3rd (or, even better, a violin player). after the first repetition of the verse, during the second, Win Butler does some distorted stuff on guitar #2, if you're familliar with the song.

Guitar Solo #1 (violin solo): (listen to song for beat count)
 "(Sexy howling, moaning vocals)"

Win's kick-ass guitar thing: (listen to song for cue to join lead guitar)

!OUTRO! -Guitar 1 plays Chorus outro and fades out, while Guitar 2 plays wither violin #2, or backup chorus- your call.
