D C Bb Ab
Couldn't read, the number in the dark
Bb G
You said, let's save it for another day

C Ab
Took a drive, into the sprawl
G F
To find the places we used to play
D C Bb Ab
It was the loneliest day of my life

Bb G
Let's take a drive, through the sprawl
To these towns, they built to change
And then you said, "The emotions are dead"
It's no wonder that you feel so strange

Cops shone their lights, on the reflectors of our bikes
Said, "Do you kids know what time it is?"
"Well, sir, it's the first time I felt like something was mine"
Like I have something to give

The last defender, of the sprawl
Said, "Well, where do you kids live?"
"Well, sir, if you only knew what the answer is worth"
"Been searching every corner of the Earth"
