Intro: G

G
War is over now
I feel my mind returning
Carried on a cloud
Every nerve was burning over you
I never had a need at all for anyone
Anyone other than you
But now that's through
So through
We're prayin' to get it fast
And we pray it's in the past
Is anything we do, ever gonna last?
Couldn't I have a clue?
Searchin' the blue

Couldn't I have a clue?
Searchin' the blue
I'm searching the blue__e
The lay of land disease
Rocky and uneven
The light that we receive
Clouded beyond reason
Still we breathe
A human knows its self throughout without a doubt
For better, for worse we will remain
The same
We're prayin' to get it fast
And we pray it's in the past
Is anything we do, ever gonna last?
Couldn't I have a clue?
Searchin' the blue
Couldn't I have a clue?
Searchin' the blue
I'm searching the blue__e
