D F
 Fortune up and left me on the hotel floor
 D F
 Well you know she never paid me no mind
 D C Bb A G
 I was lying in the corner making eyes at the door
 They say it's good to start the story with a tragedy

[Solo]

D F
 The day I finally met you like I knew I would
 D F
 You raised me from the wreck of my doubt
 D C Bb A G
 You were smiling to yourself as if we both understood
 The silent language of the anguish of a heart that sings but doesn't make a sound

Bb F
 What did I do to deserve you?
 D
 How did you find me?
 F A7
 I was already halfway gone
 Bb
 You were a bright light
 F A7
 You were a fistfight, oh

[Solo]

D F
 Nobody told me all the patience it takes
 D F
 For the sky to open up around me
 D C Bb A G
 They said love is grabbing blindly at a pit full of snakes
 And wait to feel the only heel among the rows of all the venomous teeth
 Bb F
 What did I do to deserve you?
 D
 How did you find me?
 F A7
 I was already halfway gone
 Bb
 You were a bright light
 F A7
 You were a fistfight, oh
 Bb F
 Our love is older than the great wall
 Dm7 F A7
 Our love spins a gun around its finger
 Bb F
 Our love has found its way into our mouths before
 Dm F A7
 Cut our teeth until we swallow it whole
 Bb F G7
 Our love hums low beneath the floorboards
 Dm F A7
 Our love grows flowers in the winter
 Bb F
 Our love has found its way onto our tongues before
 Dm F7M
 There is more so take a bite and let it linger
