

The Band Perry - Chainsaw

Tom: A

^A
 We scratched our names in that oak tree
^A
 'Cause I loved you and you loved me
^D
 A jagged little heart so the whole town knew it
^D ^A
 Carved in the bark with an arrow through it
^E ^D
 I came out here to see it one more time

^A
 And I got my chainsaw
^D ^G ^A
 Oh you know it's got to go, it's such a shame y'all
^D ^G ^A ^C ^D ^F
 But I ain't gonna be happy 'til those names fall
^A
 And I'm sittin' on a stump
^A
 Love is shady, love is tragic, it's hard to bury the hatchet

^A
 Holdin' a chainsaw

^A
 I guess all those years, they don't mean a thing
^A
 Now I can't wait, to count those rings
^D
 Nothing left of us but dust and splinters
^D ^A
 A big pile of wood to keep me warm through the wint-er-er
^E ^D
 'Cause I, I don't have you

^A ^D
 I remember what you said that night
^A ^D
 That you would love me for the rest of your life
^A ^D
 We wrote forever with a pocketknife
^E
 But forever's goin' down tonight

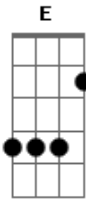

Acordes

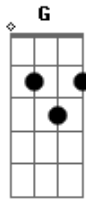

© ukulele-chords.com

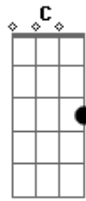

© ukulele-chords.com

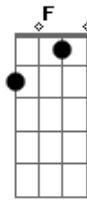

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com