

The Bangles - Hero Takes a Fall

Tom: C

^D
The hero was exposed when
^D
His crimes were brought to the light of day
^D
Won't be feelin sorry, sorry, sorry on the judgement day

^G ^F
Wasn't it me who said
^G ^F
There'll be a price to pay

^C
And I won't feel bad at all
^C
When the hero takes a fall
^C ^D
When the hero takes a fall

^D
Your mother told you stories
^D
You substitute what girls tell you more
^D
Suddenly your sycophants are chanting slogans at your door

^G ^F
They're seeing through you now
^G ^F
I saw it all before

^C
And I won't feel bad at all
^C
When the hero takes a fall
^C ^D
When the hero takes a fall

(solo over verse / bridge chords)

^D
Emotion is a virtue
^D
For you it is the one fatal flaw
^D
Sitting on your throne and drinking
^D
Thinking she'll return your call

^G ^F
Every story's got an ending
^G ^F
Look out, here it comes here it comes

^C
And I won't feel bad at all
^C
When the hero takes a fall
^C ^D
When the hero takes a fall

("oh oh, oh oh, oh whoa oh" to ^G ^F and ^D chords)
