

The Beatles - Dear Prudence

```
tom:
                                                              D D D
                                                   Dear Prudence
Intro:
                                                                        see the sunny skies
                                                   The wind is low, the birds will sing
                                                   That you are part of everything
                                                   D C G D
Dear Prudence won't you open up your eyes?
                                                    (Use a palheta)
                                                                    D
                                                    Look around round (round, round...)
                                                   Look around round (round, round...)
                                                             Bb G D
                                                   Look around
D D D D D D D D D D
                                                    (Volte a dedilhar)
                                                   won't you come out to play
D Dear Prudence D D D like a little child
                 greet the brand new day
The sun is up, the sky is blue
                                                   The clouds will be a daisy chain
It's beautiful and so are you
                                                   So let me see you smile again
D Dear Prudence D C G D Won't you come out to play?
                                                   D C G D
Dear Prudence won't you let me see you smile?
                                                   Toca a intro e termina no acorde D
Acordes
```

D D D