

The Beatles - I Got To Find My Baby

Tom: G

D G
I'm gonna search this town from door to door..
love I crave, I can't find no more.
I gotta find my baby, I declare that ain't a lie.
Ain't had no real good loving since that woman
said goodbye.

#2.
You know, I hate to see the sun sinking into the west..
cause I know my whole life's gonna be one solid mess.
I gotta find my baby, I declare that ain't a lie.
Ain't had no real good loving since that woman
said goodbye.

Well, ever since that day when we said we were through..
I've been nervous and shook up, too.
I gotta find my baby, I declare that ain't a lie.
Ain't had no real good loving since that woman
said goodbye.

Well, I don't care if it's the last thing I ever do in my life..
I'm gonna find that little woman and make her my wife.
I gotta find my baby, I declare that ain't a lie.
Ain't had no real good loving since that woman
said goodbye.
