

The Belonging Co - Fall

Tom: E

My eyes above what it looks like

My eyes above what it looks like

I will only see, All You promised me

My eyes above what it looks like

My eyes above what it looks like

I want what You want, I want Kingdom come

Let the weight of Heaven

Let the weight of Heaven

Fall, Fall, Fall

Have your way, Have your way

Fall, Fall, Fall

Have your way, Have your way

My faith beyond what it feels like

My faith beyond what it feels like

All the way to You,

All the way to breakthrough, breakthrough

My faith beyond what it feels like

My faith beyond what it feels like

Not by power or might, Holy Spirit right now

Something's changing in the spirit

Something's breaking I can feel it

Heaven come down, Heaven come down
