

The Big Bang Theory - Bernadette's Song

Tom: C
Intro: C F

C F C
If I didn't have you, life would be blue
F C D
I'd be Doctor Who without the TARDIS
F Am A F
A candle without a wick, a Watson without a Crick
F C A
I'd be one of my outfits without a dick-ey
F G
I'd be cheese without the mac,
Am D
Jobs without the Wozniak

I'd be solving exponential equations that use bases not found on your calculator, making it much harder to crack

I'd be an atom without a bomb, a dot without the com

And I'd probably still live with my mom

(All, echo: And he'd probably still live with his mom)

Ever since I met you, you've turned my world around

You've supported all my dreams and all my hopes

You're like Uranium-235 and I'm Uranium-238,

Almost inseparable isotopes

I couldn't have imagined how good my life would get

From the moment that I met you, Bernadette

F C F C
If I didn't have you, life would be dreary

F C D
I'd be string theory without any string

F G
I'd be binary code without a one,

Am
A cathode ray tube without an electron gun

F G Am
I'd be 'Firefly', 'Buffy,' and 'Avengers' without Joss Whedon

F G
I'd speak a lot more Klingon,

(AND THEN IN KLINGON SOMETHING THAT SOUNDS LIKE:)

G C D
Kalocht mechht kaccht jujch faaarm...

F G C
All: And he'd definitely still live with his mom

F G Am
Ever since I met you, you've turned my world around

F Am
You're my best friend and my lover

F G Am
We're like changing electric and magnetic fields;

D G Em
you can't have one, without the other

F G Am D
I couldn't have imagined how good my life would get

F G C
From the moment that I met you, Bernadette

F G Am D
All: Oh, we couldn't have imagined, how good our lives would get

F G C
From the moment that we met you, Bernadette
