

The Black Keys - These Days

Tom: G

(G Am) (x2)
(G Am Bm C)
(G Am G)

G
My hand to God
Am
I didn't mean to
G
After all
Am G
Look what we've been through
Am
Men come in different shades
G Am
That's how we're made

G Am
The little house on Ellis Drive
G Am
Is where I felt most alive
G Am
The oak tree covered that old Ford
G Am
I miss it Lord I miss it Lord
C A G
These blood red eyes
C A G
Don't see so good
C A G D
But what's worse is if they could
C
Would I change my ways?
C A G C A G
Wasted times and broken dreams
C A G D
Violent colors so obscene
C Cm G

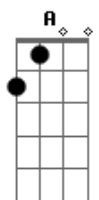

It's all I see these days
These days

(G Am)
(G Am)

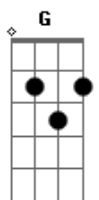

G
Watch what you say
Am
The devil is listenin'
G
He's got ears that you
Am
Wouldn't believe
G
And brother once you go to him
G
It's your soul you can never
Am
never never retrieve!

C A G
These blood red eyes
C A G
Don't see so good
C A G D
But what's worse is if they could
C
Would I change my ways?
C A G C A G
Wasted times and broken dreams
C A G D
Violent colors so obscene
C Cm G
It's all I see these days
These days
(G Am) (x2)
(G Am Bm C)
(G Am)
