Sometimes the time seems to please my pain
Sometimes something makes me kiss my chains
Sometimes I'm afraid of living my day-to-day
Cause everyday that I spend

It's a step closer to the end

Riff Verso:

Verso:

Sometimes we see our dreams undone
When our choices seem to be all wrong
When our wishes seem to be all gone
When we think we are alone

Verso 2ª parte (02:01):

When we think we don't belong to any place in the world
We try to find someone to blame for mistakes

Base Ultimo Verso (06:28):

The spring of dreams is drying and I am old and weak
With no one else to love and no reason to live
Nowaday all my dreams became dust and my life is almost gone
And I am looking for reasons to justify things I've never done
My heart is whole lotta anger and I hide my face to cry
Cause I have nothing more what to give
And death seems a matter of time
