

The Cardigans - Dont Blame Your Daughter

Tom: Eb

Cm Ab
Don't blame your daughter

Eb
that's just sentimental

Bb
and don't blame your mom

Cm
for all that you've done wrong

Ab
Your dad is not guilty

you came out a little faulty

Bb
and the factory closed

Fm
so you can't hold them liable

Ab Eb
You come from an island,

Bb Fm
you're cutting diamonds

Ab Eb
with a rubbery knife

Cm Ab
Your autograph is worthless

Eb
so don't send me letters

Bb
and don't mail me cash

Cm
'cause your money is no good

What's left in your mattress

Eb
is holes and lack of love left

Bb
some hair from a horse,

Fm
and none of it is yours, man

Ab Eb
You come from an island,

Bb Fm
you're cutting diamonds

Ab Eb
with a rubbery knife

Ab Eb Bb
And the song you sing today

Eb Ab
wasn't always in your head,

Ab Eb Bb
the words you tryin' to say

Eb Ab
are the ones you shouldn't have said

Fm Cm
they're glistening like diamonds,

Fm Cm
go out and find'em

Ab // Eb // Bb

Eb // Ab

Ab // Eb // Bb

Eb // Ab

Fm Cm
The world is full of diamonds

Fm Cm

Cm Eb Fm2 Db
but don't blame your daughter
