

The Cardigans - Sick & Tired

Tom: G

I saw, there is a real cardigan's classic missing.
Hope, chords are all right and you'll enjoy (it's a bit tricky, but you'll see)!

Tabbed by: De Selby
Email:

Tuning: standard

Intro: Em Em7 Gb B

Verse:

Em Em7 Gb B

Bridge:

Em D

Chorus:

Am D G Em D7 C B

Intro: (Em, Em7, F#, B)

Em Em7 Em
Verse sick, tired and homeless
Gb B with no one here to sing for Em Em7 Em
tired of being weightless
Gb B
for all these looking good boys

Bridge (Em, D, Em, D, Em)

Am D G Em
Chorus you can always say my attic has its charm

Am D G Em
you can always say you did no major harm
Am D D7 Em D
you can always say that summer had its charm
G C Am
and that you did no major harm
D G B
oh, spare me if you please

Verse sick, tired and sleepless with no one else to shine for sick of all my distress
but i won't show i'm still poor

Solo:

Am D G Em

Am D G Em

Am D Chorus2 symptoms are so deep
G Em
something here's so wrong
Am D
nothing is complete
G Em
nowhere to belong
Am D symptoms are so deep G Em Am
i think i'd better stay here on my own D G B
so spare me if you please

=====

Acordes

