

The Cast Of Journey To Bethlehem - We Become We

```
What happens to you and I (If I'm, with you, I will make it)
                                                                                            tom:
Intro: C G F Am F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Will this always be just an arrangement
Can we become we
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               We'll find out in time if we don't break it
No longer known as just you and me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Can mine become yours
Two separate lives now in unity
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Combining our dreams
Stuck here together but Without keeping score
Will this always be just an arrangement
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Always together, but never bored
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              No choice in the matter but
Can we become more
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 Em
Than half of a union, we're chosen for?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              This will never work without each other
Where I am your best half
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               Can we become we (Can we become we)
And I am yours
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Start a new line on this family tree
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Bm
Stuck here forever
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Two hearts connected by one beat
And hopefully not ending in estrangement
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                Your hand in mine and It's the step of faith % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1\right) \left(
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                I could never choose to love another
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      Am
We have to take sometimes (If I'm, with you, I can take it)
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              Maybe one day I can learn to love you, too
But if we are one
```

Acordes

