

The Cat Empire - Still Young

Tom: B
Intro: ( Dbm E B Gb )
( Dbm E Abm )

Verse 1:
Abm E B Gb
First I saw you standing there, eyes so wild beneath your hair
Abm E B Gb
Coat worn blacker than the sun, shook your head like Strummer strummed
Abm E B Gb
We stood like soldiers in a line, heard the bells of midnight chime
Abm E B Gb
We turned grey walls to fields of green, the only fate that we could scream

Chorus 1:
Dbm E B Gb
Was while you're still young, find your heart and find your song
Dbm E Gb
Now where have you gone?

Chorus 2:
B Abm E Gb
No matter where you're going, and no matter where you've been, you never needed anybody else's call now
Abm Gb B
(Abm x 2)
I never met a one like you, never met a one like you, never met a one like you, don't bring me down

Verse 2:
Abm E B Gb
There's a dream that haunts my nights, of wild black horses out in flight
Abm E B Gb
The kind of free I'd never been, a kind of beast I'd never seen
Abm E B Gb
Why do all things end in pain?, I call the ghosts and ask their names
Abm E B Gb
Is that love you're running from?, if you lead then I will come

Chorus 1:
Dbm E B Gb
And while you're still young, find your heart and find your song
Dbm E Gb
Now where have you gone?

Chorus 2:
Abm Gb B
E
No matter where you're going and no matter where you've been, you never needed anybody else's call now
Abm Gb B
