

The Clash - Three Card Trick

Tom: D
Intro: Riff

(repeat a second time but without the slide)

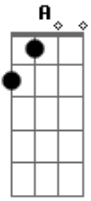

Verse 1
 A E D E
 Patriots of the wasteland torching two hundred years
 A E D E
 Dragging my spirit back into the dungeon again
 A E D E
 Bring back crucification cry the moral death's head legion
 A E D E
 Using steel nails manufactured by the slaves in Asia
 Chorus 1
 A D E D A D E D
 You won't fall for that law and order is a baton in the rib
 A D E D A D E D
 You won't fall for that just like your mommy and your daddy did
 Verse 2
 A E D E
 Blood inside a fountain pen wrote you out of life again
 A E D E
 And who knows any better than to kick and scratch under English weather
 A E D E
 >From a chain gang to the mill the mill that sits on top of the hill

 A E D
 E
 The fog drowned towns are gonna have to fade the wrong side of the a scissor blade
 Chorus 2
 A D E D A D E D
 You won't fall for that law and order is a baton in the rib
 A D E D A D E D
 You won't fall for that just like your mommy & your daddy did
 A D E D A D E D
 I'll eat my hat I'm gonna be sick
 A D E D A D E D
 They own the pack while we play the three card trick, Go!
 (play the intro riff again)
 (then play verse 1 again)
 (then play chorus 2 again)
 Outro (some of the lyrics in the outro are ad-lib)
 A D E D
 Don't you remember the place
 A D E D
 Where we hid the ace?
 A D E D
 Yeah not thick but slick
 A D E D
 Now we all gotta play the three card trick!

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com