

The Clash - Three Card Trick

Tom: D
Intro: Riff

(repeat a second time but without the slide)

Verse 1
A E D E
Patriots of the wasteland torching two hundred years
A E D E
Dragging my spirit back into the dungeon again
A E D E
Bring back crucification cry the moral death's head legion
A E D E
Using steel nails manufactured by the slaves in Asia
Chorus 1
A D E D A D E D
You won't fall for that law and order is a baton in the rib
A D E D A D E D
You won't fall for that just like your mommy and your daddy did
Verse 2
A E D E
Blood inside a fountain pen wrote you out of life again
A E D E
And who knows any better than to kick and scratch under English weather
A E D E
>From a chain gang to the mill the mill that sits on top of the hill

A E D
E
The fog drowned towns are gonna have to fade the wrong side of the a scissor blade
Chorus 2
A D E D A D E D
You won't fall for that law and order is a baton in the rib
A D E D A D E D
You won't fall for that just like your mommy & your daddy did
A D E D A D E D
I'll eat my hat I'm gonna be sick
A D E D A D E D
They own the pack while we play the three card trick, Go!
(play the intro riff again)
(then play verse 1 again)
(then play chorus 2 again)
Outro (some of the lyrics in the outro are ad-lib)
A D E D
Don't you remember the place
A D E D
Where we hid the ace?
A D E D
Yeah not thick but slick
A D E D
Now we all gotta play the three card trick!

Acordes

