

The Cosmic Surfer - Sleepless Nights

Tom: A

m

3:30 and I'm getting out of bed
 I almost drowned with the stupid things
 That are swimming in my head

4 o'clock and I'm starting to shake
 Is this a nightmare? Cause if not, I'm screwed
 Because I'm wide awake

4:30 things have only gotten worse
 The world is sleeping but I'm not Because I have this awful curse

5am and my eyes are still wide open
 I wish for sleep but then again

I'm only really hoping for

No more Sleepless Nights (no more)

5:30 and the guilt is getting deeper
 My body's aching the fatigue is getting steeper

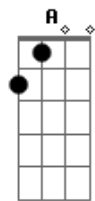

6 o'clock and the rooster says good-morning
 He cries out loud with his day beginning warning

And 6:30 and the sun is nice and bright
 Today's beginning but I'm only really wishing for

No more Sleepless Nights (no more)

Another zombie day will follow
 But still I got to push on through
 The same will happen tomorrow
 Oh Lord, tell me what should I do?
