

The Cranberries - Joe

Tom: F

(intro)

( F F Dm Am )

There was a time I was so lonely.
Remember the time, it was a Friday.
You made me feel fine, we did it my way.
I sat on your knees every Friday.

We walked in fields of golden hay, I still recall you.

We walked in fields of golden hay, I see you in the summer.

Joe...
Joe...

You sat on your chair by the fire.
Transfixed in a stare, taking me higher.
Precious years to remember.
Childhood fears I surrender.

We walked in fields of golden hay. I still recall you.
We walked in fields of golden hay. I see you in the summer.

Joe...
Joe...
