tom:

G

Am G Em Am
Silenced by death in the grave, ah ah ah ah

Am G Em Am
W B Yeats couldn't save, ah ah ah ah

Am G
Why did you stand here

G Em
Were you sickened in time

Em Am
But I know by now

Am G Em
Why did you sit here, ah ah ah

[Refrão]

Em Am G
In the grave

G Em
In the grave, grave, grave

Am G
In the grave

Em
In the grave, grave, grave

Am
Why should I blame her

G
That she filled my days

Em
With misery or that she would of late

Am G
Have taugt to ignorant men most violent ways

Em Am
Or hurled the little streets upon the great

G
Had they but courage

Em
Equal to desire

Am G Em Am
Sad that Maud Gonne couldn't stay, ah ah ah ah

Am G Em Am
But she had MacBride anyway, ah ah ah ah

Am
And you sit here with me

G
On the Isle Innisfree

Em
And your writing down anything

Am
But I know by now

G Em
Why did you sit here, ah ah ah

[Refrão]

Em Am G
In the grave

G Em
In the grave, grave, grave

Am G
In the grave

Em
In the grave, grave, grave

Am G
Why should I blame her

Em Am
Had they but courage equal to desire
