

The Cranberries - Yeat's Grave

tom:
 G
 Am G Em Am
 Silenced by death in the grave, ah ah ah ah
 Am G Em Am
 W B Yeats couldn't save, ah ah ah ah
 Am G
 Why did you stand here
 G Em
 Were you sickened in time
 Em Am
 But I know by now
 Am G Em
 Why did you sit here, ah ah ah

[Refrão]

Em Am G
 In the grave
 G Em
 In the grave, grave, grave
 Am G
 In the grave
 Em
 In the grave, grave, grave

Am
 Why should I blame her
 G
 That she filled my days
 Em
 With misery or that she would of late
 Am G
 Have taugt to ignorant men most violent ways

Em Am
 Or hurled the little streets upon the great
 G
 Had they but courage
 Em
 Equal to desire

Am G Em Am
 Sad that Maud Gonne couldn't stay, ah ah ah ah
 Am G Em Am
 But she had MacBride anyway, ah ah ah ah
 Am
 And you sit here with me
 G
 On the Isle Innisfree
 Em
 And your writing down anything

Am
 But I know by now
 G Em
 Why did you sit here, ah ah ah

[Refrão]

Em Am G
 In the grave
 G Em
 In the grave, grave, grave
 Am G
 In the grave

 In the grave, grave, grave

Am G
 Why should I blame her
