

The Dø - Opposite Ways

```
Tom: A
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         If I had balls enough to face persistent fears
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          F Em F G Am G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    Fm
                                                                                                                                                                              Dhm
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         All trouble makers will shake the ground
I have second thoughts I just cannot explain
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      F Em F G Am G Em G F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          And all double dealers will share the crown
A Intermissions that keep stepping in the way B Dbm
What if I was wrong when I abuse vulnerable hearts
What if I'm wrong to act like little lies don't hurt
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're in the maze
                                                                                    В
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Feeling the same
Second thoughts I just cannot regress
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (G A )
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Sorry about this
Intuitions that keep keeping me awake
What if I was wrong to take for granted what comes free % \left( 1\right) =\left( 1\right) \left( 1
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're in the crowd
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            D
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Fooling around
What if I'm wrong to think there's nothing wrong with me
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  Α
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (G A )
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Sorry about this
    Em F G Am G
                                                                           Em
All trouble makers will shake the ground
      F Em F G Am G Em G F
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          We're going home
And all double dealers will share the crown
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Opposite ways
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (G A )
Too
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Facing the void
We're in the maze
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're in the a maze
Feeling the same
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Feeling the same
                                                                     (G A )
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (C D )
Sorry about this
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Sorry about this
We're in the crowd
Fooling around
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're in the maze
                                                                     (G A )
                        Α
Sorry about this
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Feeling the same
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Sorry about this
We're going home
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          (G A )
Opposite ways
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Ah ah
                                                                     (G A )
Facing the void
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're in the crowd
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 D
We're in the a maze
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Fooling around
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (G A )
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Sorry about this
Feeling the same
        C
                                                                    (C D )
Sorry about this
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're going home
I have second thoughts about what I confess
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Opposite ways
                                                                                                       В
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (G A )
Strange reactions that just don't match with the rest
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Facing the void
What if I turned all the offers down and cleaned the slate
                                                                            B Abm A B
                                                                                                                                                                                                                         We're in the a crowd
What if I finally accepted my mistakes
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Fooling around
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              (C D )
Second thoughts about what I've just said
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Sorry about this
Did I mean that or was I backing out again?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Sorry about this
                                                                                             В
What if I decided to be brutally sincere?
                                                                                                                                                                                                                          Sorry about this
```

Acordes

