Well I pray, every day
 That the good Lord keep me safe
 And I try to hide all this fear built in my spine
 Give a man a day
 So I can see your pretty face
 Until I arrive in your arms

Well I don't know what you doin'
 Fightin' in this silly war
 You're not a yankee, love
 Nor a grey-back confederate
 Tryin' to keep these slaves abhorred
 You were just a simple man
 Tryin' to do these things the best you can
 Now it's time to come on home
 Got a baby in the oven
 That I need to see before she gets old

Well I pray, every day
 That the good Lord keep me safe
 And I try to hide all this fear built in my spine
 Give a man a day
 So I can see your pretty face

Until I arrive in your arms
