Tom: G

m

Intro: Gm

[Verso 1]

The shutters close when he's around
 The children shut their eyes in fear of what they must surmise
 When all the gentlemen hang their heads down, down, down
 Yeah Mr. Usher's on his way to town

[Verso 2]

He keeps his sights set straight and true
 His idle hands wont flit or flutter
 Never does he slip or stutter
 Still his mind is menacing away
 Yeah Mr. Usher's on the prowl today

[Verso 3]

He needn't dirty up his hands
 He'll twist your heart until you're manic
 Lost in endless streams of panic
 Pray you're not the one he finds
 If Mr. Usher's got you on his mind

[Bridge 1]

Any time a plan will get a bit off track
 He's the only one who can bring it back
 The main manipulator yeah the wolf who leads the pack
 You better lock your doors and shut your windows tight
 Pull the shades down and turn off the lights
 Always be the hand that meets the teeth that bite
 Because if he has no use for you

[Bridge 2]

He'll take you to the river
 Take you to the river

[Verso 4]

He'll have you hanging by a string
 Or noose if he prefers you perish
 All your dreams become nightmarish
 If you block his path or plan
 Yeah Mr. Usher always gets his man
 Yeah Mr. Usher always gets his man
 Yeah Mr. Usher always gets his man
