

The Dear Hunter - Whisper

Tom: E
Intro: E A Gbm E Gbm

E
There's shadows on the walls
Of moments far too troubling to recall
All the settings and the scenes that signal suffering
Impassioned pleas that ended in a whisper
E F#M
In all the lessons learned
Were they worth the ash from all the bridges burned?
Gbm
Standing, stomping in the damage and the ruins of a slip of tongue
E
With tragic consequences

A
I think that we've all made our gravest mistakes
On the greatest intentions that we're too stubborn to let go
E
With this little time before i go
Gbm

E
I'll open up my mouth, and scream it out to cast my voice into the crowd

E
Now that you're alone

A
Is it really so impossible to know
Gbm
All the actions and reactions pinned against each other
E

Never really end just how you want it

A
I think that we've all made our gravest mistakes
E
On the greatest intentions that we're too stubborn to let go
A
With this little time before i go,
Gbm

E
I'll open up my mouth, and scream it out to cast my voice into the crowd

E A
I know that all of this will come and go
Gbm

E
So open up your mouth and scream it out to cast your voice to the crowd

F#M E
(Don't let the world, don't let the world bring you down)

F#M E
E (Don't let the world, don't let the world bring you down)

E
So open up your mouth and scream it out to cast your voice to the crowd

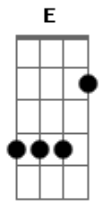

F#M E
(Don't let the world, don't let the world bring you down)

E
So open up your mouth and scream it out to cast your voice to the crowd

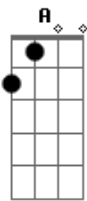

F#M E
(Don't let the world, don't let the world bring you down)

E
So open up your mouth and scream it out to cast your voice to the crowd

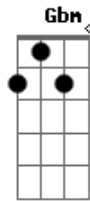

Acordes

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com