An easy ride, okay

F

C
My fingers would explore
F Gb G
The costume of control excitement soon unfolds

And I know
It will be
An easy ride, yeah
Joy, fought vaguely

Like polished stone
Like polished stone
I see your eyes
Like burnin' glass
Like burnin' glass
I hear you smile,
Smile, babe

The mask that you wore
My fingers would explore
The costume of control
Excitement soon unfolds

Easy, baby

Coda queen, now, be my bride
Rage in darkness by my side
Seize the summer in your pride
Take the winter in your stride

Let's ride
Easy, easy...
All right
