

The Doors - My Wild Love

Tom: D

my wild love went ridin'
 she rode all the day
 she wrote to the devil
 and asked him to pay
 the devil was wiser
 it's time to repent
 he asked her to give back the money she spent
 my wild love went ridin'
 she rode to the sea
 she gathered together
 some shells for her head she rode and she rode on she rode for a while then stopped for an evenin'
 and lay her head down

she rode on to Christmas she rode to the farm
 she rode to japan
 and we entered a town
 by this time the river
 had changed one degree
 she asked the people
 to let her go free
 my wild love is crazy
 she screams like a bird she moans like a cat
 when she wants to be heard
 my wild love went ridin'
 she rode for an hour
 she rode and she rested and then she rode on
 ride, c'mon
