

The Doors - Waiting For The Sun

```
Intro: D7 / G / Gm / D
                                                           Gm
                                                           Waiting, waiting, waiting. Waiting for you to come
                 G Gm Riff1
At first flash of Eden we raced down to the sea,
D7 G Gm
                                                           waiting for you to hear my song.
standing there on freedom's shore.
                                                                            F
                                                           Waiting for you to come along,
                                                            waiting for you to tell me what went wrong.
Chorus:
                                                                           Eb
                                                                                      Dm Gm
Eb F G Eb F G Eb F Waiting for the sun, waiting for the sun, waiting for the
                                                           This is the strangest life I've ever known.
                                                                   F
                                                           Waiting for the sun.
        G Gm Riff1
                                                           Riff1:
Can't you feel it, now that spring has come,
              G
                                                           Listen to the song for timing:
        D7
                       Gm Riff1
that it's time to live in the scattered sun.
                                                           DDFDFG
Chorus
                                                            ( Try playing this chords by just playing B,G and D string )
```

Acordes

