C Am C
I came home to an empty house and I found a little note:
F G F
"Don't wait up for me tonight" and that was all she wrote.
C Am
Do you think I don't know that you're out on the town
C Am
with all your high-rollin' friends?
F G
But what do you when you come up empty?
F G
Where do you go when the party ends?

C Am F
You were just too busy being fabulous. Too busy to think
G about us.
C Am
F G
Well, I don't know what you were dreaming of; Somehow you forgot about love.

C Am C
A little time in the country; A day or two to slow down.
F G
F G
A bottle of wine and a walk in the moonlight; Maybe some foolin' around.
C Am C
Am
But you think time is just a magazine and money's just a thrill.
F G
I've waited for so long for you to change your way of livin',
F G
But now I realize that you never will.

F G C Am
Cause you were just too busy being fabulous. Too busy to think about us.
C Am F
G

You've always been the life of the party. But now, my baby -
The joke is on you.

F G C Am
And you were just too busy being fabulous. Too busy to think about us.
C Am
F G
Runnin' after something that never comes. What in the world are you runnin' from?

F G C Am
And you were just too busy being fabulous. Too busy to think about us.
C Am
C
To drink the wine from the winner's cup;
F G
To notice your children were growing up.

F G C Am
And you were just too busy being fabulous. Too busy, too
