

Eagles - One More Song

Tom: Bb

I was singing in a bar in San Diego
 And the clock on the wall said time to go
 And the old man in the chair by the fire
 Said would you boys mind playing one more
 One more song for the night gone by
 One more song for the Long ride home
 One more song before I walk out the door
 One more song before I'm alone
 Me and my buddies we were knows as the Silverados
 I was leaving town for good that night
 So we sang him one more in the old Sombrero bar
 Beneath the old broken neon light
 One more song for the night gone by
 One more song for the good times and the bad
 For the faces of strangers and the Voices of friends
 One more song for the times we had

SOLO

So we sang him a sad and a sweet one
 And we sang it so soft
 And so high
 And his tired eyes
 They smiled goodbye
 When the waitress said
 Closin' time
 I thought, it's funny the places
 Life will lead you
 As I was packin' away my bass guitar
 I was singin' this song as the road
 Raced along, and the empty night
 Swallowed my car
 One more song for the night gone by
 One more song for the things we've done
 One more song for this road
 I'm traveling on
 One more song for the time to come
 For the times to come
