

The Fortunes - That Same Old Feeling

tom:

Intro: A Dbm D E
A Dbm D
E D E

[Refrão]

E A Gb Bm
I still get that same old feeling

Tearing up this heart of mine

E E7 A
Telling me that maybe I'm, not really over you

E A Gb Bm
I still get the same old yearning

Turning my heart inside out

E E7 A
Love, there can't be any doubt, I'm still not over you

Dbm Bm Dbm E
The Oak tree where you carved my name, a year ago, now

Dbm Bm Dbm E
Somehow it doesn't really look the same, I think it knows, now

Gbm Dbm D Dbm Bm E
The places, we would go, still play the songs we used to know

[Refrão]

E A Gb Bm
I still get that same old feeling

Bm7

Tearing up this heart of mine

E E7 A
Telling me that maybe I'm, not really over you

E A Gb Bm
I still get the same old yearning

Turning my heart inside out

E E7 A
Love, there can't be any doubt, I'm still not over you

Dbm Bm Dbm E
The cottage where we used to meet, is overgrown, now

Dbm Bm Dbm
We'd dreamed we'd live there, too, someday

E
Just on our own, now

Gbm Dbm D Dbm Bm E
Letters you wrote me, still bring back sad old memor..ies

[Refrão]

E A Gb Bm
I still get that same old feeling

Tearing up this heart of mine

E E7 A
Telling me that maybe I'm, not really over you

E A Gb Bm
I still get the same old yearning

Turning my heart inside out

E E7 A
Love, there can't be any doubt, I'm still not over you

Acordes

