

The Fratellis - Doginabag

Tom: G Bb x4, A x2, Ab x2, G x1

This is my first tab so cut me a little slack it your gonna then this chew me out on this comments mail me on this site or

SOLO:
 this is the background of the solo

While that riff is being played theres another guitar that plays the chords

G Bb C

then Bb x4, A x2, Ab x2, G x1

play this twice

then play this 7 more times the part after that I am no that sure of how its played it comes out of that Es-335 sounding phase with

then
Bb A Ab G

then

After that sequence is played let the G ring and play this over it

then this

Then the chord sequence again
Bb x4, A x2, Ab x2, G x1

and then it goes
Bb x4, A x2, Ab x2, G x1

Then this again

then this

then this once

Play the following two above like this Chords then the riff, so it should read out AA G#Ab G, then play the above riff...do the whole thing 3 times

Back to this 7 more times

Then play this a couple of times then have a fade out effect to lessen the sound...

Acordes
