

The Fratellis - Ella's In The Band

Tom: D

(intro) (4x)

(verse)

Baby's in the kitchen on the big black trombone

E E7
E A
I'm in the bedroom on the cursed phone
E E7

Everybody laughs when the band goes too slow

A G A G
Meeting every Tuesday in a club in Soho
E A E
I'm just dreaming on Rockefeller Plaza
E7 E E7

Paul's in the hall with the bedroom plaything

E E7
E A
He's wishing he could give her a damn good thrashing
E E7

Everybody cries, "Well, good for you, Paul!

A G A G
We never liked her very much at all."
E A E
I'm just dreaming on Rockefeller Plaza
E7 E E7

(refrão)

I'm just waiting on magic shoes, got three wee chords, and I just can't lose

E D E E A
G E
I'm just finding my own way there, I lost my voice and I grew my hair
E E7 E E7

(verse)

E A
Well, brother John's long gone, keeps his nose clean
E E7

E A
He's sucking on a black and white TV screen
E E7

Well, he says he got a girl and a paper memory

A G A G
Pictures on the wall and a dog named Henry
E A E
I'm just dreaming on Rockefeller Plaza.
E7 E E7

E A
Well, Ella's in the band but she's always solo
E E7

E A
She's dressed in rags and covered in dayglo
E E7

A G A G
Banging on the drums like a big white throwback

A G A G
Screaming all the while at her husband, poor Jack!

E A E
I'm just dreaming of Rockefeller Plaza
E7 E E7

(refrão)

E D E
Well I'm just waiting on pigs to fly

E A G E
Got cold dead brains and a reason why

E D E
I just better move half as slow

E A G E
As be your dog and your one man show

(break - played twice)

(repeat three times)

(refrão)

E D E
I'm just waiting on magic shoes

E A G E
Got three wee chords, and I just can't lose

E D E
I'm just finding my own way there

E A G E
Oh I lost my voice and I grew my hair

E D E
I'm just waiting on pigs to fly

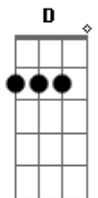

E A G E
Got cold dead brains and a reason why

E D E
If I just didn't move half as slow

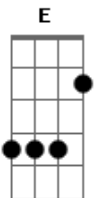

E A G E
I'd be your dog and your one man show

( E E7 E E7 E )
