

The Fratellis - Headcase

```
Tom: C
                                                                   (guitar 2)
   (guitar 1 - Rhythm)
(guitar 2 - Lead)
                                                                 (verse 3x, then bridge again.)
                                                                   (at end of bridge) (once again, those are "ones," not "elevens").
   (intro riff 1 - guitar 1)
                                                                  (guitar 1)
  (guitar 2)
                                                                   (guitar 2) (solo included, this time they are elevens )
  (intro riff 2 - guitar 1)
                                                                 (Both guitars then play "intro riff 2")
  (guitar 2)
                                                                   (breakdown (w/ wah pedal - guitar 1 plays muted strings)
                                                                   (guitar 2)
  (verse) (guitar 1 - 3x)
  (guitar 2 - 3x)
                                                                 (both guitars then play the verse again, then back to "intro riff 2")
 (bridge - guitar 1)
                                                                 (ending)
 (The 11 below isn't "eleven," it's two quick plays of the (guitar 1)
first fret.
                                                                  (guitar 2)
```

Acordes

